Rutledge

after the war she again rebuilt her school, a boarding and day school for girls, which friends named "Stonewall College" because my grandmother would not succumb to adverse circumstances.

This large building was destroyed by fire Jan 1882. so we have so little records of my father's family as my grand father James Henry Rutledge b. S.C. June 16, 1815 d. July 25, 1846 Marion Ala. married in Greene Co. Ala. Jan 31, 1839 to Mary Jane Vance b. Knoxville Tenn. May 15, 1819 - my father son of above was Walton Glover Rutledge b. April 10, 1841. Marion Ala.

James Henry Rutledge's father was James Edward Tor Henry - married Mary Lester of Virginia known as Pretty Polly Lester - they moved to S.C.

New Albany, Miss.
June 23, 1937.

Mr Archibald Rutledge.

My dear Sir:-

I have just finished reading "My Colonel and His Lady" and to me it brought such precious memories of another Rutledge - my father who was in the Army of Northern Virginia the four years of the war. He was only a boy about eighteen when he joined Co. B. 2nd Mississippi Regiment. leaving his widowed mother who had a school for girls in Ripley Miss. while he was away her school was burned by Yankee troops. all family

PARENTS OF MRS. M. J. BUCHANAN.

FATHER-Samuel Vance, Born March 29, 1792
" " " " Died October 16, 1840, Mobile, Alabama.

MOTHER-Elizabeth Allen <sup>Buck</sup> Born January 17, 1797
" " " " Died October 31, 1836, Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Married in 1818.

MRS. M. J. BUCHANAN.

Mary Jane Vance, Born Knoxville, Tenn., May 5, 1819.
Was oldest of eight children (three died very young).
Graduated with honors at Tuscaloosa Female Institute in 1836.
At age of 17 had care of two brothers and two sisters.
After her father's death 1840 she lived in small house in yard.
Raised these children while governess for Mr. Walton Glover's family.

Afterwards taught in Seminary at Marion, Ala. There met and later married Mr. James Henry Rutledge in Green County, Ala., January 31, 1839.

James Henry Rutledge was born in South Carolina June 16, 1815.
Of this union there were two children.

Walton Glover Rutledge born in Marion, Ala. April 10, 1841.

~~Henri~~ Henri Rutledge born in Marion, Ala., October 1, 1843.

Showing her great love for Mr. Glover and wife who had been so much to her when looking after her orphan brothers and sisters, both these children were named for Mr. and Mrs. Glover.

James Henry Rutledge died in Marion, Ala., July 25, 1843.

Mrs. M. J. Rutledge and Isaac Buchanan were married in Marion, Ala., July 28, 1846.

Only child, John Lewis Buchanan born in Holly Springs, Miss., July 20, 1848.

Isaac Buchanan died in Ripley, Miss., May 19, 1862.

Mary Jane Buchanan died in Oxford, Miss., February 22, 1894.
Buried in Ripley, Miss.

Taught 11 sessions in Alabama

" 3 " " Holly Springs, Miss.

" 32 " " Ripley, Miss.

" 2 " " Florence, Ala. (Chair of Mathematics in Girls Female College.)

" 3 " " Pontotoc, Miss. (Principal ~~Chickasaw~~ Female College.)

Her last days were spent in the heart of learning, the campus of University of Mississippi, and many a struggling student was helped by her.

In Ripley taught at Academy before war. It was burned and "Stone-wall Female College" built. Had it until burned in 1880. Citizens built again and taught two years then gave it up and went to Florence to teach.

During war Reverend John Miller, Presbyterian Minister, was killed and just below Ripley near King's Creek by Yankees. (Mrs. Miller was school mate of Mrs. Buchanan's). After much trouble Mrs. Buchanan got body and permission to carry it to his family in Pontotoc. She with her son Lewis Buchanan
